THERE ARE many ways of judging livestock, as will be evidenced Saturday morning at the Porterville Fair when business men judging teams get together to challenge each other on knowledge of livestock in a new fair feature. Fair Director, and Cartoonist Bill Reece, presents his version of what could happen in the above cartoon, with that fellow and his crystal ball rated to win, that is if you believe in crystal balls.

GREAT FAIR IS NOW OPEN

PORTERVILLE, May 21 — Porterville's 12th annual fair got underway at 9 a.m. this morning — Thursday — with the judging of Future Farmer and 4-H livestock, and with the greatest commercial exhibits and fat stock display in the history of the fair.

Program for the day will be highlighted by a pet parade, starting at 6:30 p.m. in the grandstand area and a concert by the Bartlett school band, at 7 p.m.

Grandstand show, featuring top professional acts, plus the horseless carriages of Ed Jones and Don Jackson; the colorful Piper Band of Explorer Scout troop No. 35; cotton dress queens, prize livestock and Arabian horses, will go on at 8:30 tonight, also on Friday and Saturday nights.

Featured Friday and Saturday will be Ralph Wiggins, who will make a hot air balloon ascension from the ball park area at 7 p.m. each night.

Arabian horse show will be the afternoon feature today, Thursday, starting at 2 p.m.; Quarter Horses will be in the spotlight Friday afternoon; Saturday afternoon the fair will present its annual Junior Fat Stock sale.

NELSON MCINICH TO BROADCAST FROM FAIR

PORTERVILLE, May 21 — The West's top farm reporter — Nelson McInich — whose programs originate at KNX in Hollywood, will broadcast from the Porterville fair grounds, Friday.

As in past years, McInich will interview fair officials and exhibitors to present the story of the Porterville fair to his listening audience that extends over the western states.

McInich is being brought to Porterville by Sunkist Growers, and will broadcast from the Sunkist exhibit at the fair. He will also enjoy a glass or two of orange juice at the Job's Daughters booth, which this year has been remodeled, painted and made into a highly attractive concession center.

PORTERVILLE, May 21—Plenty of action is promised for the Junior Horse show and Gymkhana that will be staged as a Saturday morning feature of the Porterville Fair, starting at 10 a.m.

With nine classes set up for boy and girl riders ranging in age from eight to 18 years, entries are being received from throughout the southern San Joaquin valley.

John Keck, show chairman, says that ribbons will be awarded through fourth place in all events; a special trophy will go to the high-point winner of the show.

As a new feature this year, four events have been arranged with $1.00 entry fee, money going back into first, second and third-place awards for the events.

Assisting in handling the show will be Uly Priftike, Donald Jones, Ed. Thompson, Mal Weisenberger, Bill Rodgers, Evonne Beaver and Nancy Smith.

Cow Belles To Distribute New Recipes

PORTERVILLE, May 21—Plans to distribute new beef recipes and new posters to retail stores and meat counters in Tulare county were made by members of the Tulare County Cow Belles at their final meeting of the season held last Saturday at the Buckaroo in Three Rivers.

In other business, members heard a report on a former meeting at Estrada's at which Hertmut Hitzer, from Gromitz, North Germany, spoke. He is an exchange student in Visalia high school; his appearance at the meeting was arranged by Alberta Jackson and Marjorie Shannon.

Report on the recent Cow Belle spring dance at the Gill Barn in Frazier valley was also presented and a letter was read from Barbara Frayo, of Success Valley, who is attending Chico State college on a Tulare County Cow Belle Scholarship.

Members voted to send letters as a group, and as individuals if their children participated, to buyers of livestock at the recent 4-H fair in Tulare.

Forty members attended the Three Rivers meeting; co-hostesses were Helen Trueblood and Donna Gill.

Bonus Goes To $267.00 Next Tuesday

PORTERVILLE, May 21—There'll be action at the auction Saturday afternoon, starting at 2 p.m., when Future Farmer and 4-H club exhibitors at the Porterville Fair put their fat animals on the auction block as the final step in completion of their club or school projects.

Handling the gavel will be Col. Harry Hardy, of Bakersfield, assisted by his son — California's youngest auctioneer—Col. Skinner Hardy. About 80 head of steers, 65 lambs and 40 barrows will be sold, which will make the 1959 Porterville fair sale the biggest in the 12-year history of the fair.

Persons desiring to buy top-quality meat for their locker can contact sales manager Rolla Bishop at the fair grounds — SU 4-5599, and arrange to bid in any type of animal wanted. Arrangement can also be made for a half carcass.

Bishop states that Bestway Foods and Jones Locker Service in Porterville are offering six-month, free locker service to anyone buying an animal at the fair. He also says that a four per cent shrink is allowed.

Transportation and slaughtering charges will amount to $5.00 a head for beef; $2.00 for lambs and two cents a pound, live weight, for barrows. Carcasses will be returned to locker of the buyer's choice.

Assisting with the sale will be: (Continued On Page 10)

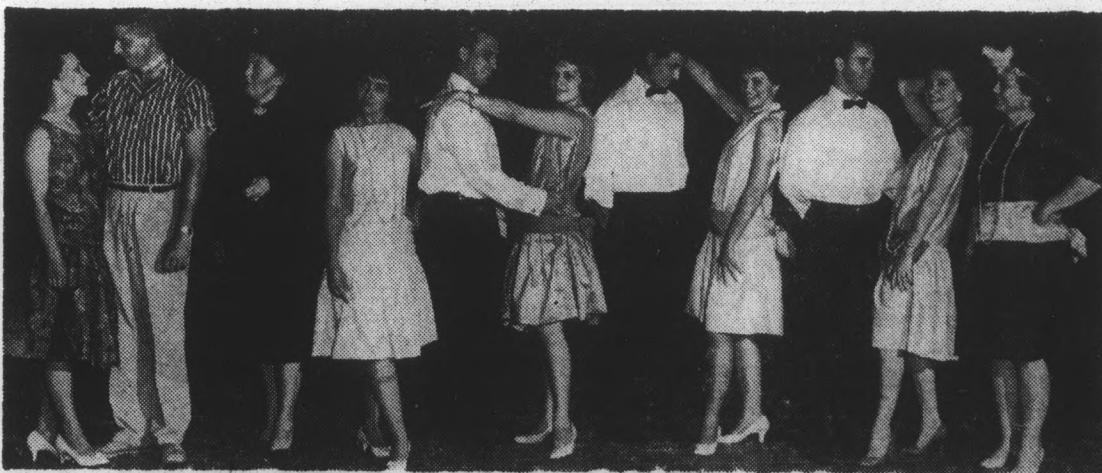

Quarter Horse Show Afternoon Fair Feature

PORTERVILLE, May 21 — Meca for California Quarter Horse fanciers Friday afternoon will be the Porterville Fair, where an official association show will be staged as an afternoon feature of the fair, starting at 2 p.m.

Guido Lombardi, show chairman, says that some 125 of the West's best Quarter horses will be entered in competition, with classes at halter slated for the grandstand area, and with action class in the gymkhana area east of the livestock barns.

Presenting awards during the show will be Frances Rafferty, one of the stars of television's "December Bride." In private life she is Mrs. Tom Baker, her husband being the president of the Pacific Coast Quarter Horse association.

Of special interest will be a new class in this year's show, Lombardi says, fillies of 1959, which will feature colts in the one to five month age group.

SCENE FROM "The Boy Friend", that opens tonight, Thursday, for a three night run at Porterville's Barn Theater, then again plays the nights of May 28, 29, 30, June 5 and 6. Cast members, from left are: Miriam Wilcox, Hank Moerschel, Thelma Legace, Nancy Delk, Gil Strauch, Carla Cloer, Louis Borbon, Judy Baker, Ray Snow, Marilee Moerschel and Rowena Taylor.

WILLIAMS WAS THERE!

Those persons, farmers and small business men, who joined in Monday's trek to the state capital to voice opposition to the obnoxious AB 419 were mighty glad of one thing.

They were glad that State Senator J. Howard Williams was ready and willing to help them fight their battle; they were glad that Senator Williams is on the Senate Labor committee where he could help bottle up this bill and keep it off the floor of the Senate, for once on the floor, the chances were excellent that AB 419 would have carried.

And they were mighty glad to have Howard representing them — that is evident from the comments that were brought back, which can be summarized in three words, "Howard was great."

But what a sad situation existed in the State Assembly, where our Assemblyman Myron Frew voted for this bill 419, voted for this bill that would lay out the welcome mat for the labor boss.

Nearly 1,000 persons, the largest group to attend a legislative committee hearing in recent years, went to Sacramento to protest AB 419, that was introduced in the Assembly at the request of Governor Edmund G. Brown.

But because of Senator Williams, and a few others like him, and because farmers rose up on their hind legs and said, "This can't be", and because certain Senators who would ordinarily support a bill like 419 contracted a sudden case of panic in the face of such strong opposition, 419 was tabled, which virtually assures that it is dead for this session of the legislature.

Keep men like Senator Williams in Sacramento, and farmers and small businessmen will not be molested by threats of legislation such as 419; keep men like Frew in Sacramento, and the threat will turn into the fact and we'll get 419, or something worse.

Borror Holstein Classified As Excellent

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., May 21 — Sequoia Vel Mont Burke Vena, a registered Holstein in the herd of Mark L. and Bruce W. Borror at Springfield, has been officially classified "excellent", the highest designation attainable in type classification program of the Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

To qualify, an animal must score 90 or more of the 100 points representing theoretical perfection in body conformation. Of nearly 45,000 registered Holsteins officially classified for type last year, only 358 were rated as excellent.

Catchable size rainbow trout being stocked in all readily accessible roadside waters continues to provide good fishing with plenty of fish and plenty of available waters. But regardless of all these benefits it takes a bit of know how or at least some good luck to obtain the best results. Time of day for the better fishing remains during the early morning hours for planted or wild trout. Fishermen shouldn't show up just any old time of day with any old tackle and bait and expect to go home in a hurry with a limit of trout, it just doesn't work that way, although thousands of unhappy anglers think that it should.

Everett McKay, Merced, Buddy Seaman, Atwater and Ted Meeiros with George O'Brien, both of San Diego, were arrested for fishing in McClure reservoir and each fined $25 with $10 suspended. We understand all these men were in the armed services and were under the impression that service men fished for free in California. Furthermore, we have had numerous phone calls on this subject. People on active military duty are considered residents and must pay the regular fee of $3 plus $2 for stamps for inland fishing including trout.

Avocado lake was stocked late last week with 500 mature white catfish along with 1,000 golden shiners, the latter being for forage fish. This is the first time Avocado has been stocked with cats, the original planting being bluegill, bass and shiners. After a grand and glorious opening of this gravel pit about two years ago it has failed miserably to produce any great amount of fishing fun. Skin divers who use this lake extensively say there is quite a good population of fairly large bass in the lake and we have an unconfirmed report of one being taken the other day weighing around nine pounds.

ANLER'S SIERRA FOREST REPORT—Kaiser Pass still closed, therefore Edison and Florence lakes not accessible. The Stump Springs road open to the Kaiser Creep Camp Ground . . . closed beyond.

Beasore road open to upper Chiquito creek. Closed from there on up meaning Clover and Granite creeks are closed. Caution! Road very muddy at Cold Springs Summit, also known as Beasore Summit. Placer-Beasore road closed. Ross Crossing on Dinkey creek open.

IT NOW appears that the City of Porterville airport committee that has been in operation for some 10 years does not exist. Confusing? Sure is, but after a search of official city records, there is nothing to indicate that a city airport committee was ever created. Apparently, an old chamber of commerce committee sort of "grew like Topsy" when the city took over the airport property, which means that a city committee that has been accepted as an official agency of the city isn't and never was . . . Councilman George Skilton is going to look into the situation and come up with some recommendations to the present city council as to just what the need is at the airport — committee, board, commission. Whatever it is, it will be officially and legally established this time.

AND AREA planning commission. We personally voted against participation by the city of Porterville. We have discussed this plan many times in print, so we will not go into it again now. But it was interesting, Tuesday evening at a city council meeting, to hear Harry Conway, county planning engineer, admit, in effect, that his county planning staff is snowed under, that he can't get his work done for various reasons, that really he and his staff aren't Road to Courtright open and fishermen are reminded that all tributaries to this new lake are closed to fishing until July 1.

The fish and game commission intends to set the deer season from August 8 to September 20 on the coast and from September 19 to October 25 for the inland area, an overlapping of coast closing and inland opening.

Phil the Forester interviews Wm. E. Warne, new fish and game director on KFRE-TV at 4:30 p.m., Sunday, May 24.

doing as good a job as they should. . . . Certainly a frank admission, but our idea of a solution to this problem is not a third level of planning; rather, the county planning staff should be put into shape; if more personnel is necessary, that's a problem for the county supervisors to face; if a more experienced planner is needed, that's also a problem for the supervisors . . . As a taxpayer, we suggest to the supervisors that they give the county planning commission the tools that it needs to work with, and quickly; that physical planning on a county-wide basis be emphasized; that cities of the county cooperate with-in the three-mile radius of influence by city planning commissions . . . As we have said before, planning on a county-wide basis is necessary and desirable; we think the county should be at it, rather than worrying about the pie in the sky.

LOS ANGELES — Tulsa, Okla., got top billing last week with its own Big Four meeting.

The Rodeo Information Commission, the Rodeo Foundation Committee, the National Finals Rodeo Commission and the Rodeo Cowboys Assn., all set out to get together and unwrap a few problems.

However, a couple of committeemen from the Rodeo Foundation couldn't attend . . . so that one was canceled.

The big nod this trip went to the National Finals Rodeo Commission . . . the men that ironed out all the details of programming, hotel accommodations, ticket sales, promotion and a hundred other things to make the Dallas Rodeo the big one of the year, December 26 - 30.

Bill Linderman, Walla Walla, Wash., was selected as arena director for the world's first rodeo series . . . a decision that, to me, was the best piece of judgment used by cowpokes in many a day.

Bill not only has the respect of all the cowboys and is well-known by the public, he also has a great deal of experience producing rodeos, judging and arena directing.

Another thing . . . Bill Linderman is not associated with any one outfit today and, in this waddie's book, he's one of the finest and greatest cowboys who ever pulled on a pair of high-heeled boots.

Jim Shoulders, the Henryetta, Okla., boy who became rodeo's top waddie in 1958, produced the Johnny Lee Wills Stampede at Tulsa and did a top job of it.

His first producin' job was Hutchins, Kans., and I understand he had a problem there.

Ol' Jim bucked off in the bull ridin' so now he says he's gonna sell that bull:

"Heck, I don't want to own no stock I can't ride . . . might make me look bad!"

Tulsa results looked like this when the last chute closed:

Bareback — Ira Akers, Baird, Tex., won the average and both go-rounds for $957.99.

Saddle Bronc — Duane Howard, Minewauken, N. D., won the average with a total marking of 520 on three head.

Bull Riding — Ray Hammer, Ardmore, Okla., won $803.30 on one head.

Calf Roping — Olin Young, Livingston, N. M., with a total time of 22.4 on two head.

Steer Wrestling — Harley May, Oakdale, Calif., with 4.5 on his first head and a flat 4.0 on the second, winning him the average. May was beat out for a win in the second go-round by two 3.3 times.

The Tulsa All-Around award went to Bob Wegner, waddie from Ponca City, Okla., whose bull and bareback points totaled $914.88.

Back in California I've had a rare experience for a leather-poundin' cowboy. Had the honor of attending Joe Hyam's journalism class at U.C.L.A. and doin' a little lecturin'.

Hyam writes a syndicated column for the New York Herald-Tribune and is marked in his own profession as one of the finest writers in Hollywood.

After talkin' for an hour and a half, they really flung the questions at me, I felt more like I'd given a lecture on how not to write a column instead of how to write one.

Some of the questions went like this:

Q. Are there many divorces in rodeo?

A. Not as many as in Hollywood.

Q. Do TV westerns help rodeo attendance?

A. It's the other way 'round. Rodeo's been helpin' the TV westerns!

Q. Could TV western stars become good rodeo contestants?

A. No comment . . . figure that one for yourself.

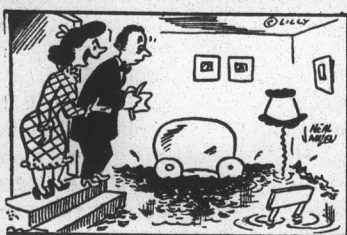

Q. Do you sing and play a guitar?

A. Nope. I make it the hard way.

Q. Do you have trouble finding material to write about?

A. Nope, again. My only trouble is not being able to use it all.

News Of The SPRINGVILLE COMMUNITY

By WINNIE GAGE

Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Killian are moving to Oceanside on June 8 to make their home. They sold their ranch, known as the Lazy K, to Mr. Roche a few months ago. For several summers they had a summer camp for girls.

They will be guests of Mr. and

Mrs. A. V. Munson in Visalia on Friday evening. The move to the apartments they have purchased will put them nearer to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Swett in Corona Del Mar, also nearer their former friends and schoolmates of his during Navel Academy.

Mrs. Art Johnson of San Diego, Mrs. Vera Pond, Sacramento, Mrs. Edith Grimes and Mrs. Lucille Reed of Delano were Friday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Gage.

Miss Frances Templeton was honored with a bridal shower on May 14th, in the Nazarene church annex. The hostesses were Mrs. Tom Smith and daughter Martha who served cookies and punch to 32 guests present. She received many lovely and useful gifts.

The Springville Hobby Club met last Friday in the home of Miss Lucille Higgins on River Drive. It was the club's annual birthday potluck dinner. Enjoying the afternoon were Mmes. Mary Lunsford, Gwen Myrick and Emma McCutcheon of Porterville, Ethel Rush, Ann Baird, Nell Southworth, Goldie Haggard, Bessie Ruby, Lora Gage, Celine Myers, Jeannette Higgins, Winnie Gage and Olena Strickland. Moving pictures taken on hat day were shown. June meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. Bessie Ruby.

Frances Templeton and DeWayne Bass were married Sunday, May 17th, in a single ring ceremony performed by Rev. Marion Jones in the Nazarene Church.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Donna Willis (sister of the bride.) Best man was Gary Willis (the bride's brother-in-law.)

The bride's ballerino length gown was a white nylon lace and tulle over white satin with fingertip veil. Her bouquet was white carnations.

Georgia Riggins sang "Truly" and "Because" accompanied at the piano by Martha Smith.

Frances is the daughter of Mrs. Bill Rowland. She attended school in Springville and Porterville. DeWayne is the son of Mrs. Harley Dobson and also attended Springville and Porterville schools. He has been employed in Purity stores in Madera the past three years. After a short honeymoon in Southern California they will live in Madera.

Seventy-five guests attended the wedding and reception.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were George Bass, Tulare; Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bass of Ontario; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Hicks, Porterville; Mr. and Mrs. Bailey Hill, Wasco, and Mrs. Elmer Duncan, of Dinuba.

George Christof was in La Canada and Glendale on business Tuesday and Wednesday. He has purchased a home on the Balch Park road.

The regular monthly meeting of the Springville 4-H Club was held recently at the Veterans' Memorial hall, and presided over by the president, Andrew Moore. The Flag Salute was led by Maureen McDonald, and the 4-H Pledge by Mary Choate.

The Springville club was well represented at the recent county 4-H Fair, and the following members reported on the fair, as well as the various livestock and food entries which they had exhibited: Reggie and Leonard Frayo, Margaret Brand, Andrew Moore, Brent Gill, Duane Bayless, Cynthia, Mary and Jane Choate, Maureen McDonald. Andrew Moore also gave a report on the Hi-4-H booth at the Fair, and an account of the recent Hi-4-H meeting, where plans for the Hi-4-H camp were discussed. It was decided that the camp would be held on the 17th, 18th and 19th of July.

Duane Lantsberger reported that the recent skating party was a success, with quite a good turnout of members and friends.

It was decided that the next meeting would include a talent contest, with prizes being awarded for the best talent. Election of officers will also be held at that time, and the following members were appointed on the nominating committee: Brent Gill, Maureen McDonald, Jerry Gould, Leonard Frayo, Barbara Corzine, Andrew Moore, and Cynthia Choate.

Project reports were given by Reggie Frayo, Barbara Corzine, and Jerry Gould, and demonstrations by Maureen McDonald, Marilyn and Carolyn Green, Cynthia Choate and Margaret Brand.

CHAPEL CHIMES

By Rev. N. J.
Thompson

My sincere thanks to those kind readers who have written to say that my scribbling has been a blessing to them. I've been thrilled to hear from people in Missouri, Illinois, Oregon, Ireland, Jamaica and, of course, California. Thanks for taking time to write. God bless you.

"Chapel Chimes" is now making its voice heard across the nation. In addition to two weeklies, The Terra Bella News and Porterville's Farm Tribune, this column appears regularly in four monthlies. These are the Assembly of God Church, San Francisco, Stamps Quartet News of Dallas, Texas, Voice of Revelation, Bakersfield, Calif., and The Revelator, issued by the Little Church by the Sea at Laguna Beach. The latter three publications have national circulation.

A "Chapel Chimes" column was recently reprinted in Contact, the national magazine of Christian Business Men's Committee International, with headquarters in Chicago, Ill.

I thank the Lord for these wonderful opportunities to proclaim the Gospel via the printed page. My heart's desire is that these printed messages might be channels of blessing to every reader, bringing inspiration, encouragement, and fresh faith in the goodness of God.

Many fine folks believe there is a God. But James 2:19 states that even the devils believe there's a God, and tremble. Acknowledging that God lives will save neither devils nor men from God's righteous judgment. What is vitally needed is for you and me to acknowledge, on bended knees, that we are lost sinners, deserving of hell; and seek God's pardon and help.

We need to experience God's love in our hearts. We need to "behold the Lamb of God", crucified between two thieves — and melt before the eternal import of the Cross.

OLD DAYS

DECEMBER, 1900

UPPER TULE — This is the time of the year when all nature seems to smile, and it makes us joyful too, as we feel so sure of a good crop, which means good times.

Feed is getting pretty good and stock is doing well. Considerable grain has been seeded.

Fred R. Prescott has the Wilson place partly seeded to grain.

Mrs. Eunice Tremper Garner has resigned her school at Globe.

Loyd Cornell has purchased what is known as the Amick place and is hauling lumber from the Curn dump to make some hog-tight fence, as he will put in some grain. He brought some white oats out from the East and will sow them as a trial.

There was a measuring social at Springville the 14th to raise money to defray expenses for a Christmas tree which was well attended.

VISALIA—There are only three teachers of the county reported as absent from the teachers' institute: Mrs. Della B. Howell, of Zion, who is ill; W. E. Premo, of Tulare, who received an injury in his knee, and Mrs. Thomas Garner, of Rural, who has resigned.

BIG TROUT ARE TAKEN AT LITTLE LAKE

QUAKING ASPEN, May 21 — Limits of 12 to 15 inch trout were brought into the Vernie Pace Pack station a week ago by Harry Verheul, owner of the Quaking Aspen store, and Blue Schott, of Tipton.

Biggest fish was 16 inches; the fishermen spent several days at Little Kern lake, fishing the lake and the river. They report good weather, excellent early-season fishing, and clear trails as far as snow is concerned.

Fishermen have been enjoying outstanding fishing on the Tule river watershed for the last week. The nicest catches in several years have been coming out regularly, and a large percentage of the fish are native Loch Leven or German Browns.

Four nice Browns have been brought out during the last week: 18 1/2 inches, 19 inches, 20 inches and 23 1/2 inches, all caught on the Nelson fork. Fishing for catchables in the planted areas has also been very good.

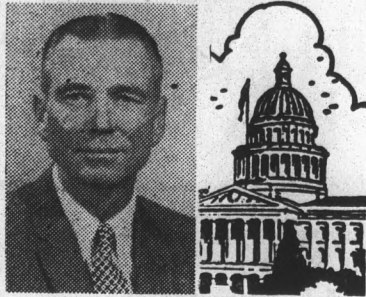

Prospects are for continued good fishing for the next week, with all forks of the Tule being planted with catchable trout. Water is very low and clear on all forks, and fly fishing is at its best.

Very good fishing on Big and Little Kern rivers can be reached from Quaking Aspen pack stations. Water is very low — at about the normal flow for July or August. Fly fishing is excellent.

Balch Park pack station is not open yet. Lakes are all open and accessible for private stock.

United States late spring crop potato forecast is for 22,125,000 hundredweight, 10 per cent below last year.

YOUR LEGISLATOR AT WORK!

Senator
J. Howard Williams
32nd District
California State Legislature

As directors of the two billion dollar enterprise which is your California state government, we legislators have a natural concern with the various types of legislation which are brought before us for consideration. Each of us must form his own opinions as to the relative value of measures introduced, and must weigh their comparative importance to his district.

Our daily legislative chores tend to focus our interest on bills of immediate concern, and also tend to obscure the broad, slow changes in types of legislation which result from the continuing growth of our state, and changing conditions within it.

Because of such limitations, it is always helpful and frequently refreshing to get an outside review of our operations and accomplishments. Recently, one of our members participated in an intensive panel consideration of the effect of legislative and other governmental action on the general welfare. He has prepared a memorandum on the panel findings and has made it available to us for study. Some really significant questions were raised on matters which deserve considerable study by the general public as well as the legislature.

The reports serve one very valuable purpose in reminding us that our responsibilities are considerably wider than those directly involved in the conduct of state government. Too often, both we and the voters overlook the fact that we also have important responsibilities in connection with setting policy for counties, cities, school districts, and all other kinds of local government units. The true measure of the matters for which we are accountable is more nearly four than two billion dollars. That is approximately the amount required annually to pay the cost of all state and local government in California.

The report reveals that most of the legislation coming before us is directly related to the organization, powers, and administration of the state itself, counties, cities and all local districts. A preliminary review of legislation introduced in the last three sessions indicates that only about three percent of measures introduced have been in the interest of Agriculture, business, labor or the professions. All the rest were concerned with government itself.

This situation has come about largely because the need for governmental services has grown even more rapidly than has our total population. Schools, welfare, highways, water and flood control, protective services — every function of government has been multiplied a hundred fold during the past generation. As each new need has arisen, it has been met by some unit of government, as frequently as not by a newly created special purpose district.

This multiplicity of overlapping and competing governmental units has vastly complicated the tasks of your legislators. Every new problem encountered by any of these numerous agencies has generally brought with it a demand for new state legislation to deal with it. As the units have grown in size and importance, they, too have retained legislative advocates to watch their interests at the legislature, so the total problem is snowballing.

One thing seems certain. Simplification of our governmental operations must be a prime objective for your legislators. Some citizens must be left free to produce the goods we need to live.

California late spring potato crop is estimated at nine per cent below last year.

If you don't read any further and if you hurry a little bit you'll have time to take in the Fair. This you should do because it's one of the few places left that gives you your money's worth. No hidden charges, no extra tickets to see what's in the back room, no quick change artists, just good entertainment surrounded by Porterville's finest animals and merchandise.

Our exhibit will be in its usual location, displaying the finest in plants landscaped into a natural garden scene. You can tell it looks real because so many people throw their empty cups, used papers, and other litter around the plants. This gives it that lived in look sometimes referred to as civilized.

After you've seen the fair we recommend a tour around your garden to prepare it for summer. A little peat moss and acid food around the camellias, a new sprinkler for the back forty, a shot of food on the roses, and a general removal of stuff left over from last winter. Even clean bare ground looks better than last year's petunias.

You might prepare a few spots for summer color by working peat or steer into the soil and planting the latest in Petunias, Salvia, or Gloriosa Daisy. These and many other rugged plants can be found over here on "E" Street north of Olive.

COUNTY HAS 1,838 ENROLLED IN 4-H CLUBS

By Frederik L. Jenen
Farm Advisor

VISALIA, May 21— Producing table Thompson seedless requires the two operations of girdling and thinning. To obtain large berries, complete the girdling first and follow with thinning as soon as possible.

The most simple and the cheapest method of thinning is to make a single cut on the cluster leaving only the upper five to seven laterals or shoulders. In another method the tip of the clusters is cut off and the berries on one side of the cluster removed up to the shoulders. The most compact portion of the cluster occurs just below the shoulders.

The crowding of the berries sometimes results in rot. With the first thinning method, this portion of the cluster is completely removed. With the second method, the crowding is alleviated by removing part of the berries.

In addition, some of the clusters may be removed entirely because they are small or misshapen or because the load on the vines is excessive. Where early maturity is important, about 20 clusters per vine are retained. For later maturing vineyards, 25 to 30 clusters per vine are normally kept.

Here's Short-Cut Potato Salad Ring

Preparation of old-fashioned potato salad takes a modern short cut with frozen French fries. The partially-cooked, ready-peeled and cut potato sticks are heated through in minutes for combining with your favorite potato salad ingredients. Mix the salad, and press into a ring mold. When ready to serve, unmold on a platter surrounded by salad greens or colorful rings of cold meats and you have a truly handsome salad plate to dress up a summer meal.

To prepare frozen French fries for salad, simply heat the potato sticks in boiling water for 4 or 5 minutes. Drain and cool for blending with other ingredients. You'll find that this trick of preparing the frozen French fries works equally well, also, for scalloped potatoes or creamed potatoes or for quick preparation of any other traditional creamy potato dishes. The frozen French fries combine well, also, into meat and vegetable casseroles for hearty main dishes.

Try this tempting colorful potato salad or make your own favorite starting with the frozen French fry short cut.

that also views the Fair with some alarm, as they see it engulfing the ball park. The idea of horses dashing here and there about the infield and booths, and displays sprouting in the outfield is a trifle startling. However, a quick check of the schedule reveals that no ball games are scheduled for the time being. The directors, in their wisdom, realized a ball game and fair do not mix; not in the same park, at least.

ONE ITEM ON THE AGENDA fascinates us more than somewhat. That is, the balloon ascension. We will check into this and let you know who furnishes the hot air! If we string this out much longer, we will be accused — so, "Meet Me Tonight by the Hog Pen."

What you should know about

POLIO

WHEN is the "polio season"? While the highest incidence occurs during the summer months, paralytic polio strikes during every month of the year. An epidemic may break out at any time, anywhere.

WHAT is required for maximum protection against paralytic polio? Three injections of Salk anti-polio vaccine. The first two given 2 to 6 weeks apart. The third, 7 to 10 months later. Records covering millions of cases prove that the vaccine is safe and effective.

WHO should be immunized with anti-polio vaccine? Although it is most important for children, young adults, expectant mothers and parents of young children to be immunized, all individuals through age 40 should take advantage of the protection afforded by anti-polio vaccine. Nearly one-fourth of all paralytic polio victims are adults and it is adults whom paralytic polio hits hardest.

BECAUSE we, as pharmacists, share your doctor's interest in preventive medicine, we urge you to call him TODAY to arrange for the polio immunization of your family and yourself.
